- Starting in 1998, HorseSisters & Associates, Inc., a volunteer based 501 (c)(3) nonprofit community benefit organization, with the help of all Brevard County, provides sanctuary and adoption for homeless horses that are rehabilitated & may be retrained to go on to provide H.E.A.T.-HorseSisters Equine Assisted Therapy for challenged children and adults at the ranch in Mims.
- HorseSisters unique mobile programs can bring therapy horses right to clients. Currently serving all ages with all physical, emotional, spiritual or mental health needs from all over Florida; we need your assistance by becoming PARTNERS in our programs. HorseSisters needs YOUR support through volunteering, donations and sponsorships to serve Brevard County. Please help us continue to offer proven therapeutic riding, equine assisted experiential learning and therapies, classic Hippotherapy using registered physical, occupational, speech, language and mental health therapists with our many programs. We can also tailor programs for any person, group or company and offer our services to all youth and families. We are happy to provide community service hours for any program as well.
- Using draft horses, draft crosses & all other breeds, HorseSisters also supports Space Coast Dreamweavers Equine 4-H, many therapy programs, including SPECIAL OLYMPICS, through HORSE DRAWN SERVICES, including the white 6 passenger & black 4 passenger carriages, a "surrey with the fringe on top", two hay wagons and horse drawn funeral services. Visit our HorseSisters Emporium at the ranch for now with new community gatherings & classes coming soon!
- Group or individual horsemanship riding and driving lessons with CHA certified instructors.
